

Carolina Burr

Carolina Burr, is a Portfolio & Structured Products Analyst and Assistant Fund Manager at Mentor Capital Corporation in Coconut Grove, Florida. With specialized knowledge in Fixed Income, Mortgage Backed Securities (CMOS) and Structured Produces such as CDOs, CLOs and Pretsels.

Prior to her tenure at Mentor Capital Corporation, Carolina worked from 2007 – 2008 at Banco de Credito del Peru in Miami, FL as a Portfolio Analyst. Moreover, from 2003 until 2005, Carolina worked as an assistant buyer at KB International Trading Corporation.

Bilingual in Spanish and English, Carolina has travelled extensively throughout the world to countries such as: Spain, Italy, Denmark, France, Australia, Indonesia, Costa Rica, Chile, Peru, Argentina, Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic and Mexico.

In addition to her interest in Finance, Carolina's passions lie in mentoring and assisting students and pursuing alternative forms of healing. She is an avid yoga practitioner and a certified yoga instructor with a level 1 reiki certification, currently teaching in the Ft Lauderdale area. Her past volunteer activities include visiting and organizing events for female inmates in jails, math tutoring for youth at risk and peer counseling at the University of Miami, School of Business Administration.

Carolina earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Entrepreneurship with a minor in Finance from the University of Miami, Coral Gables, FL in 2007.